Goder's will save you in Dress Hints ten times subscription price.

Gonser's will give the best illustrated fashions, both in Colors and Black. Selected from the Pari-sian and Berlin models.

Gonser's will continue the Children's Corner, which has been so favorably received and enjoyed by our young readers.

Goden's will give you, in fact, the best of everything within its covers. Including as it does Laterature, Fashions, Music, Engravings, Dress Hints, Home Talks, Etiquette, etc.
With the January issue we will begin two new serials entitled: The Discipline of Pain, by Edward Majorie Lee, by Margaret Spencer. Whose Majorio Lee, by Margaret Spencer. Whose bright and attractive letters from Washington have met with so much favor from our readers. The story is located in the Capital, and as the authoress herself resides there, it is full of real incidents. We predict for "Majorie Lee," a warm reception from our subscribers, who will be sure to find her very winsome, and feel that the authoress has worked for them a fairy web that has many beauties and real interest woven in the meshes. For the latter months we have a number of Seri-als and Short Stories by the best authors.

The Legend of the Lantern, by Mrs. Olivia Lovell Wilson. This charming story will run through several numbers, and will be illustrat-ed with original photogravures by Will P. Hooper. The Autobiography of Mary, by Ada Marie Peck. To those who have read "The Filjean Mystery," by this author, we need say nothing ex-cept that it is thought to be better (if possible) than any of her previous efforts.

In addition to our usual number of short stories, we shall publish a series articles entitled. Advice from Everywhere, by Olivia Phillips. Embracing such subjects as "The Sick Room," "Home Nursery," "Children's Nursery," "Amusements for the Shut Ins," "A Minister's Outing," "A Year Well Spent," etc. Acousta Salisbury Prescott, well known from her writing for the great New York newspapers, the World, Advertiser, etc., continues to write for us, and during the year will furnish a series of articles that will be well worth the price of the magazine, entitled, "New Year Recoptions," "An Afternoon Tea," "Jenny is going to be Married," "Wedding Presents," etc.

Helle C. Gales, whose humorous sketches, the Hawkins Family, have made her famous in this way, will give us some new features which twe are assured; will be more mirth-provoking than her previous effects. GODEY furnishes during the year over 1000 pages of entertaining illustrative, useful home matters, destrable and instructive to every lady in the land.
